

Euro 2016- Travelling to France to support your UK football team?

The Euro 2016 football tournament will take place in various locations in France from 10 June to 10 July 2016.

With England, Wales and Northern Ireland competing, excitement is likely to be at fever pitch. For more information see: Be on the Ball at Euro 2016

Apply for a free European Health Insurance Card and get comprehensive travel health insurance.

Be safe. Conditions will be crowded; be aware of personal safety and protect yourself against accidents, injuries and theft.

Condoms will help reduce your risk of sexually transmitted infections, including HIV.

Drink responsibly. If you drink too much you may not be allowed into stadiums.

Ensure you are in date with the recommended UK vaccines, and check our for France Page for health information.

Foreign and Commonwealth Office security and terrorism advice is available here

2016 EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP FINALS

FAN CARD

EMERGENCY CONTACTS

Any emergency: 112
Medical emergency: 15
Police: 17
Fire brigade: 18
British Embassy: +33 (0)1 44 51 31 00

USEFUL LINKS

Fan travel guide:
gov.uk/euro2016
Getting around France:
france.angloinfo.com/transport
Road safety advice:
fcowidget.com
Event information:
uefa.com/uefaeuro/hosts
Travel advice updates:
gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice/france

FOR MORE INFO VISIT: GOV.UK/EURO2016

Download the Foreign and Commonwealth Office's free Fan Card to your phone/tablet or request a credit card sized copy from: fcoleaflets@tso.co.uk

If you need emergency medical help, dial 112 for an ambulance.

A European Health Insurance Card is free and gives you access to state-provided healthcare for temporary stays in France, but you still need appropriate travel insurance.

TRAVEL HEALTH
PRO

travelhealthpro.org.uk