

01 May 2019

Update to rabies risk for Estonia

NaTHNaC has reviewed and updated the rabies recommendations for Estonia

NaTHNaC has reviewed and updated rabies country-specific information recommendations for Estonia. Following communication with national authorities, Estonia has changed to a country considered at low risk of rabies.

The latest news about larger rabies outbreaks can be found on the Outbreak Surveillance database.

Resources

- Rabies factsheet
- WHO rabies factsheet
- Green book chapter 27: rabies
- PHE guidelines on rabies post-exposure treatment