

09 May 2019

Hepatitis A vaccine recommendations for Turkey updated

Hepatitis A vaccine is recommended for most travellers to Turkey

NaTHNaC regularly reviews reports of Hepatitis A infection including reports in travellers. Vaccine guidance is updated in consultation with Public Health England.

The country-specific hepatitis A vaccine recommendation for Turkey has been upgraded from "some" to "most" travellers.

The basis for disease-specific recommendations are available at Country Specific Information-Rationale.

Resources

- Hepatitis A factsheet
- Public Health England. Hepatitis A infection: prevention and control guidance