

03 Feb 2020

Vacancy: Travel Health Adviser (Pharmacist)

PT 7.5 hours on one day each week, 12 months fixed term- deadline for applications extended to 21.02.2020

We have an exciting opportunity for a highly motivated Pharmacist Travel Health Adviser to join our small team of dynamic and committed physicians, nurses and administrative personnel. This non-patient facing role will involve playing a key part in our core service areas (including the Advice Line and travel health training for health professionals) as well as contributing to specialist projects and initiatives.

Please take a look at the full job advertisement, person specification and job description and consider whether this role could be for you.

Interviews will be held on Friday 6th March 2020, University College London Hospitals.