

01 Jul 2022

Vaccine availability, shortages, and discontinued products

Information for health professionals regarding vaccine supply

NaTHNaC is aware that vaccine supplies may be disrupted from time to time for different reasons. Health professionals who are having trouble obtaining specific vaccine products are encouraged to contact the supplier or vaccine manufacturer directly for information.

Further general information including links to additional useful resources is available for health professionals in a factsheet, Vaccines: availability, supply, shortages, and use of unlicensed medicines.