

27 Aug 2025

Professional Diploma in Travel Health (online), LSTM

The next Professional Diploma in Travel Health run by the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, begins on 22 September 2025

The next Professional Diploma in Travel Health (online) run by the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine (LSTM), begins on 22 September 2025.

The programme is open to registered doctors, nurses, pharmacists, and travel and expedition health professionals who wish to further develop their travel risk assessment and problem-solving skills in clinical practice.

Places are still available for the upcoming course. Further information about the course, together with application procedure can be found on the LSTM website.